

Wilderness Awareness School Anake Outdoor School Scholarship Application

Applicant Name: _____

Parents Name (If applicable): _____

Address: _____

Phone () _____

Scholarships for Wilderness Awareness School programs are limited in their scope, and are intended as Tuition Assistance to enable people to participate who otherwise would be unable to afford the full cost of our programs. Anake Outdoor School awards range from $1000 to $3000.

I. Financial Need

Scholarships are intended to give those without the financial ability to pay for our programs the opportunity to attend. Please describe your financial situation and why you feel that you need this scholarship in order to be able to attend the program:

II. Amount Requested: _____ Annual Household Income: _____

Size of Household (# in residence): _____

III. Program Relevance

If more applications are received than there are scholarships available for a specific program, priority will be given to applicants who are most likely to extend the program's teachings into their lives or careers.

Please describe how you see this program being relevant to your current work or life goals. Include how you foresee yourself taking the teachings of the program into the world (continue on back if you need more space) _____

IV. Deadlines

Please submit your scholarship application at the same time as your Anake Outdoor School application.

Please NOTE: Your scholarship application will not be reviewed unless you have also submitted a program application (use our on-line form, or print out the PDF form and mail it in to us).

Please return applications to:

Emily Gibson

Wilderness Awareness School

PO Box 5000, PMB 137

Duvall, WA 98019

Wilderness Awareness School does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, age, sex, disability, national or ethnic origin, or sexual orientation. Wilderness Awareness School is an Equal Opportunity Employer